This level of delusion is absolutely unreal. I have relatives that actually still believe Joe Biden is going to be the next president. It's like they've completely buried their heads in the sand and are clinging to unhinged conspiracy theories. I try to calmly explain to them that there's no possible path for Biden to become the next president at this stage but they just flip out when forced to confront their cognitive dissonance.
It's not even funny at this point. I'm genuinely concerned for these people's mental state.

Because the fight's over, son. You lost. You guys have retreated into increasingly fantastical denials to attempt to deal with this fact, and frankly it's getting boring. I believe the current cope is that there's going to be a rally in D.C. early next month where mobs of Trump supporters will forcibly take over the government and proclaim Trump as the "real" winner of the election?

I'm tired of hearing about it. You guys are so far gone that nothing's getting through to you. Once your little rally turns out to be another big disappointment, just like everything else Trump has done for the past four years, then I'll be back so we can talk about it. I'll see you after the rally, once you've finally been forced to face reality. Looking forward to it!

>obvious desperate demoralization posting since even before the elections
It seems to have worked rather well, though? The point is that you were sufficiently demoralized as to lose, and now that you've lost and are currently hard stuck on the "denial" stage of your grieving, there's no point to further effort until you've been prodded along to the next step.

>>298918559
Remember when people came here with legitimate criticisms of Trump, and you stuck your fingers in your ears and screamed, "Still voting Trump! Still voting Trump!" and all the moderates who decide elections were only exposed to the arguments of your enemies, and they were convinced to support your enemies, and you lost the election? This is your chance to learn a lesson, son. Changing your lemming warcry from "Still voting Trump!" to "You will never be a woman!" is just digging your hole deeper.

Are trannies even a full percent of the population? They're like 0.3% or some shit, right? Consider the repercussions of your only insult being utterly pointless and ineffective against 99.7% of the people you're replying to.

Why do Trump worshipers get so excited for someone that will only give them scraps? Because he's the only one who will give them anything, so they settle with it like good goyim and never hold these fuckers to higher standards, never push for more. This is why the western world is fucked

It happened to me regularly over the years, which is a large part of why I sat this election out and spent my time trolling you npc faggots instead. You can try it yourself, right now. Go make a new thread and ask:
>I voted for Trump in 2016. Why should I have voted for him a second time when he >didn't build the wall >didn't prosecute Hillary >didn't reform immigration laws >didn't bring manufacturing back to the u.s.
and see what kind of responses you get. Will they be from people who accept that Trump failed to deliver his core campaign promises but attempt to make a case for him having done things that earned him a chance at a second term, or will it be lemmings calling you a tranny? I'm serious, go do it right now. You might learn something about the level of brainwashed morons you're interacting with around here.

Like how /pol/ "won" the 2016 election with "epic memes"? Because I've seen that claim repeated endlessly for years.

>We obliterated you nonstop amd you in typical demented fashion are actually trying to claim demoralization worked?!?!?!?!? LMFAO!!!
You know you lost the election...right? What you're doing now is just as stupid as the left in 2016 when they declared that only racist rednecks could be Trump supporters, therefore they couldn't possibly lose to them. I warned you guys about this repeatedly the past few years. You didn't learn a single fucking thing from the left's mistakes in 2016. Not only that: you literally repeated the exact same mistake. You actually convinced yourselves that the only people who could possibly not support Trump were antifa boogeymen and trannies, and you shouted down anyone who tried to have an honest discussion of Trump's failings, and as a result you were completely blindsided by your loss, so much so that you're STILL coping and imagining scenarios where Trump pulls out a miracle win.

/pol/ used to pride itself on its ability to win debates, especially with people who came here looking for a fight. Personal attacks are not how you win a debate, and losing debates are not how you win converts to your political ideology. You can learn this lesson now, or you can lose again in 2024. Your choice.
